FROM THE MUSEUM: Mrs. Sitton reports that the collections continue to grow. Recent gifts include a large collection by Charles Eustice, Yamhill, which he had treasured for many years. He is preparing a history of the individual items. Kendall Walker, Yamhill, donated a handmade child's chair of hazelwood and skin bound with buckskin that his grandparents brought across the Plains, his Grandmother's stone crock made in New York state, a large glass candy jar, and a bar of soap made by his Mother. It is hoped that by May first it will be possible to keep the museum open at least 25 hrs. a week. This will call for considerable hours of volunteer work by members of the Society. Last year's visitors greatly enjoyed the exhibits.  Some men are requested to volunteer to do some painting. (What about Women's Lib ?! Ed.)

DESPERATELY NEEDED - a good mimeograph machine. Who will give it ?????????
