

Event.....April meeting
Time.....Tuesday 8, 7:00 P.M.
PlaceCarlton Baptist Church
Speaker.....Jane Claire Dirks Edmunds, Biology Dept.
Linfield College.

COME and bring a guest or two, also your own table service and lots of food.

Mr. Clarence Neal, who has been doing the printing of the bulletin for some time as been ill with the flu for the past two weeks so this will be an abbreviated issue. We have more interesting pictures and material on the old town of Dolph and other articles pending but they will have to wait for the offset press. Ray Albright

MUSEUM NOTES

THERE re several dates this month for school children touring the Museum preparing for centennial history.
MR. David dunaway our speaker at the last meeting gave the society a very large photo of Mrs. Amos Cook. He gave a very nice talk of his family and his boyhood memoirs.
A photo of J.S. Herndon of Amity family. He was, physician, druggist and postmaster.
Thursday the 13th was house cleaning day. Many came to help and I give my thanks to all. The men folks moved furniture and did some yard work.
There has come to me several offers to plot old cemetarys for the Museum. We need more to choose a location and list and plot same. Thanks to those who offered to help. Many tourists come asking for this information.
TOURS anytime. 472-7935 Roma Sitton
