Prettying up the Heritage Center

Stop by the Heritage Center sometime and see the colorful annuals that have been put out. Here is another example of team effort that goes into making our museum hum along. It started with the McMinnville Garden Club donating hanging baskets. Karen Sitton-Saxberg and Gloria planted the baskets and other pots with flowers from Alderbrook Nursery and the Master Gardeners. Many of those flowers were donated or purchased at cost. Karen and her son, Steve, placed the pots around the tractor and baler.

Chuck Kadell got four used telephone poles from McMinnville Water and Light. Our blacksmith, Steve Gossett, then made and donated hanging basket brackets. Under the supervision of Bill Moore, Steve Cone, and Tim Duerfeldt, the boys from Pioneer Days dug the holes and installed the poles. Finally, Cliff Watts and Dale Keim hung the baskets.

Also, the Pioneer kids planted heirloom flowers in the flower beds around the Restoration Shop to go along with all the annuals that we have just planted.

We should be pretty darn pretty as the summer progresses.

President's Letter

Dear YCHS Members,

I would like to talk a bit about volunteerism. As you know, the Yamhill County Historical Society is, at present, an all volunteer organization. The Yamhill County Historical Society, along with Evergreen Aviation & Space Museum, were the only two participating organizations to reach, in the first month, the volunteer hours required to qualify for the First Federal Community Rewards Program.

Erin Stephenson, First Federal Community Relations Coordinator, informed us that YCHS had submitted an "amazing" 956 total volunteer hours for the month of April! These hours were almost evenly split between our two museum sites at Lafayette and our new Yamhill Valley Heritage Center.

Congratulations to all of our hard working volunteers! I do not have space here to name all of our volunteers but I would like to mention a few of our dedicated people. At the Miller Museum in Lafayette we have Marge Owens, Jean Sartor, Farrell Fuerst, Shirley McDaniel, Anita Vander Meide, and Nancy Thornton. These volunteers all function in many other capacities including keeping the Miller Museum and the historic Poling Church open to the public three days a week.

At the Yamhill Valley Heritage Center on Durham Lane (just out of McMinnville on Hwy. 18) we have a number of dedicated volunteers who are there several days each week. Each Saturday, the Heritage Center is open to the public. On Saturdays, Glen Watts will be there to greet visitors and conduct them on a tour of the museum. Glen has an amazing amount of knowledge about the antique farm and timber equipment and other historical artifacts on display there and is happy to share that information with visitors.

During the months of May and June, Gloria Lutz and the other Education Committee members, along with many other YCHS volunteers, have and will be conducting "Pioneer Days." Several hundred county school children are expected to tour the Yamhill Valley Heritage Center during that time. The students will be able to experience activities that their ancestors were required to do in their daily lives just to survive!

The YCHS has also benefited greatly by having Jerry Hart as the attorney for the Society for many years. He does the vast majority of our legal work pro bono.

Since Louise Heindl stepped down as Volunteer Coordinator a few months ago, we have not been able to fill this important position. In many nonprofit organizations this would be a paid position, but we are not at a point where we can hire a staff person to fill this position. One of the duties of the Volunteer Coordinator would be to identify and use efficiently people with particularly valuable skills. Of course, every person who volunteers would be bringing some personal talent, experience or skill to the table. It would be largely up to the Volunteer Coordinator to screen individuals for their personal set of skills and assign them where they could most benefit the organization. If you or someone you know would be interested in taking on the role of Volunteer Coordinator for the society, please contact me or one of the other board members.

We want to wish Pat Williams a speedy recovery from her recent surgery. We also want to give our condolences to the Williams family for the recent loss of Jim, their oldest son.

As of May 11, we have raised $14,350.00 in Heritage Brick donations. As most of you know, these funds will be used toward the construction of the Flag Monument to be erected at the Heritage Center. After that project has been fully funded, the brick donations will be used for other construction costs at the center. I would like to thank all of you who have already purchased bricks. We still have room on the base of the monument for those of you who still wish to donate a brick or bricks!

Lafayette Pioneer Cemetery

The Lafayette Pioneer Cemetery was originally called the McBride Cemetery and was established about 1850 on a slight hill overlooking the little community of Lafayette. In 1887, the property was sold to a local order of Masons (number three) and then resold in 1906 to the International Order of Odd Fellows number 29. By 1930, the cemetery had again been sold to the IOOF, number 30. The Banner Rebecca Lodge of Lafayette took over the grounds by 1943 and merged with the Vespertine Lodge of Yamhill in 2002.

By late December, 2004, the Rebecca Lodge signed the cemetery over to the Yamhill County Historical Society. A fund was also established which was restricted for the maintenance of the cemetery. For several years, Debra Clark and some members of her family, along with others, were in charge of the care of the property. The YCHS appreciates Mrs. Clark and all of the other people who have helped in this capacity.

This year, a standing committee has been formed by the YCHS Board of Directors which will have the responsibility of maintaining the cemetery grounds. This is the Lafayette Pioneer Cemetery Committee, and it is chaired by Joanne Watts. The other current members of the committee are, Brian Bowman, Kory Knutz, Diane DeMay, Karen Sittton-Saxberg, Matt Dunckel, and Carolyn Meeker.

One of our new committee members, Brian Bowman, has ancestors buried in the Lafayette

Pioneer Cemetery. Brian's family is buried in an area enclosed by a low iron fence. The plot contains the "earthly remains" of Jacob Ferguson who came to Oregon about 1852 or 1853 and served for a time in the State Legislature.

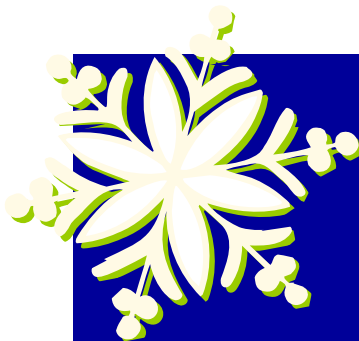

There also is the grave of a man named John Bird who is thought to have owned a small store in Lafayette. He apparently served in the militia in some of the Indian wars.

A much beloved resident of Yamhill County, Kolene Williams, passed away in 2007 and a local chapter of the DAR planted a red oak tree in her honor at the cemetery. For many years, Kolene and members of her family helped take care of the grounds at the cemetery.

This Memorial Day weekend, the Yamhill County Historical Society will have someone at the cemetery to welcome visitors on Saturday and Sunday. The new Lafayette Pioneer Cemetery Committee will have volunteers working at the cemetery in the next two weeks to get the grounds ready for visitors.

If you wish to donate to the fund which is dedicated to the maintenance of the Lafayette Pioneer Cemetery you may make your check payable to the YCHS and mail it to P.O. Box 484, Lafayette, Oregon, 97127. We are a 501c(3) non-profit and your donation can be deducted for tax purposes.

A Handmade Holiday

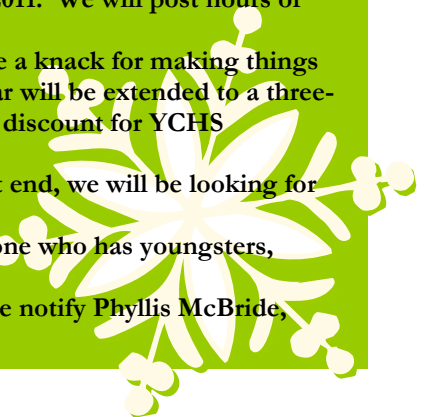

I realize that we are all gearing up for summer, but Christmas isn't far away. It's time to start thinking along those lines for our winter event, A Handmade Holiday, to be held December 2—4, 2011. We will post hours of operations at a later date.

We will be looking for anyone who would like to participate this year. If you have a knack for making things for gifts and would like to sell some of them, we need you. The program for this year will be extended to a three-day program, and the cost of a booth will be $40 for the three day run. There is a $5 discount for YCHS members.

We will also have our annual raffle and hourly giveaways in the program. To that end, we will be looking for donations for both activities.

We are also considering a coloring contest for the children, so if you know someone who has youngsters, suggest this to them.

We will be in need of only a few volunteers, so if you would like to sign up, please notify Phyllis McBride, (503) 516-1652 or email pinokeo@gmail.com

In Memory of Maxine Williams

Maxine was special, and when I recall all of her accomplishments during the two years she was president (1989-1990), I'm impressed that such a quiet, unassuming lady could have furthered the welfare of the historical society by so much.

I think she was proudest of getting the Old Yamhill book reprinted with a more substantial binding and selling so many copies.

Among many other things which happened during her term were a quilt raffle (Bessie Cornie's group made and donated the quilt, and Twila Brynes sold the winning ticket to Marge Menke whose mother, Marian Gray, was also a member), a field trip to the Federal Prison in Sheridan, one to the Andrew Kershaw house in Willamina (April Wooden's home), and purchasing and donating Mrs. Michelbook's wedding dress to the museum.

Maxine arranged for a display of the famous “Murder Quilt” at the McMinnville Library and also for other displays there. She led us to a “surprise location” for a summer picnic where musical entertainment was provided, including George Williams on his harmonica.

She was aware of what the volunteers were doing at the museum and was very generous with her thanks, she was a regular volunteer herself, decorating the tables at potlucks in interesting and attractive ways.

She continued helping in many ways after her term was over, serving as chairman of the Heritage Tree committee and the ad hoc record sales committee. She sponsored an Oregon Trail program at the McMinnville Library, went on all the field trips available to members, helped with festivals, and other projects.

But best of all, she was a wonderful, gracious friend.
