

Quilt Show, Appraisal Faire, Vintage Market & Old Iron Show

Yamhill County Historical Society Presents

Treasures in the Attic

Every quilt has a story.

Presentations on September 16, 2017

- 10:30 “Quilting at Coffee Creek Women’s Prison” by Coffee Creek Quilters
- 11:00 “Old Quilts with Stories” Bed Turning by Donna Hulett & Jean Sartor
Yamhill County Historical Society
- 11:30 “Artistry through Quilting” by Helene Knott, Featured Quilter of this year’s Treasures in the Attic
- 12:30 “Sell, Keep or Toss—Disposing of your Treasures” by Donna Miller, local antiques dealer
- 1:00 “Old Quilts with Stories” Bed Turning by Donna Hulett & Jean Sartor
Yamhill County Historical Society
- 2:00 “19th Century Quilt Making” by Rachel Greco, quilter and quilt historian

FEATURED QUILTER: HELENE KNOTT

Helene is an award-winning quilter, teaches quilting and fiber classes, makes commissioned art quilts, and participates in many quilting and fiber shows. She resides in Portland and designs commercial quilting patterns, with a line of patterns published by Story Quilts. Through her love of art and fabric, Helene has developed her own business and enjoys sharing her knowledge and passion with many people.

SPECIAL PRESENTER: RACHEL GRECO

Quilt historian Rachel Greco, owner of Grandma’s Attic Sewing Emporium in Dallas, is a popular presenter at Treasures in the Attic. Rachel says “You need no look further than the textiles produced by 19th Century women to learn about their lives, their daily passions, and the innovations of the era that allowed them to express their creativity in thread and cloth.” Rachel will present a look at quilting methods of an earlier era that continue to inspire us today. You’ll discover styles, techniques and inventions that revolutionized quilting forever.