Warning Concerning Copyright Restriction

The copyright law of the U.S. (Title 17, United States Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material. Under certain conditions specified in the law, libraries and archives are authorized to produce a photocopy or reproduction. One of the specified conditions is that the reproduction is not to be "used for any purpose other than private study, scholarship, or research." If a user makes a request for, or later uses, a reproduction for purposes beyond "fair use," that user may be liable for copyright infringement. This institution reserves the right to refuse to accept a copying order.
