MUSEUM NEWS

The Quilt show was a big job-- in fact anything worth while is. Thanks to all the fine help. Was a great display.

Newt will be summer house cleanup to be ready for tourist season.

Need Sunday help--now. Who will choose his own date --call 472-7935.

Several more quilts were donated during the show-- thanks.

Thanks to Dick Blinkensop for repairs to frozen water pipes. Hot and cold water again -- a big help.

Thanks to Mr. Long of Cornelius for painting the hall. Mrs. Long for helping clean drips and floor -- it took all afternoon till 7:00 P.M. to finish.

Many thanks to Mrs. Lloyd Goodrich for typing up all records to date. We were behind on file and cards to record each article. It was a big task. It was well done. Thanks Clara for your contribution.

A NEW BOOK

A new book has just been published that is a must for those interested in trains and more especially the old short lines and narrow gage lines that were so important to the settlement of the country. STATIONS WEST, the story of the Oregon Railways, by Edwin D. Culp deals with most of the old rail and trolley lines, Yamhill county is well mentioned and the book is profusely illustrated, published by the Caxton Printers, Ltd. Caldwell, Idaho, the price is $12.95.
